

Exploring New Forms of Astrology

Using the StarHouse as a training vessel for Astrosophy

Astrology is a tool that can reveal the wisdom in one's biography—the mystery of the triumphs and tragedies that belong to each individual.

WHEN: Beginning Friday evening, June 12, 2020, and for succeeding days (different Parts A, B, and C explained at INFORMATION)

WHERE: The StarHouse, Boulder, Colorado (www.TheStarHouse.org)

FOR WHOM: Everyone seeking to understand one's personal biography and world events through anthroposophical astrology.

PRESENTERS:

- Brian Gray, teacher at Rudolf Steiner College for thirty-eight years, author of star wisdom articles (Journal for Star Wisdom) and presenter via internet videos (WiseCosmos.org)
- Robert Schiappacasse, for many years involved with the Waldorf school movement, author in star wisdom (Journal for Star Wisdom) and co-author of Star Wisdom & Rudolf Steiner
- David Tresemer, Ph.D., founder of StarHouse, author in star wisdom (Journal for Star Wisdom and other books), co-author of Star Wisdom & Rudolf Steiner

MORE INFORMATION & Registration: <https://thestarhouse.net/star-wisdom/>

You will learn:

- About the foundations of western anthroposophical sidereal astrology—why celestial events are important to human beings
- Life stages—the 7-year periods of a human biography and their relation to celestial events. Life stages are a good way into astrology, as you have very personal experiences of them!
- New and traditional methods for interpreting birthcharts and life events
- Learning about yourself by learning to read your own chart